

Resource list of plants found at the Sawtooth Botanical Garden that have a high water requirement. This document is intended to help educate gardeners in our valley who are interested in establishing landscapes in naturally wet and cool areas.

High Water Use Plants (more than 1" a week)

Common Name	Botanical Name
Snowdrift	Astilbe x arendsii
Red Sentinel	Astilbe x japonica
Bebb's Sedge	Carex bebbii
Smallwing Sedge	Carex microptera
European Lily of the Valley	Convallaria majalis
Pinky-Winky Hydrangea	Hydrangea paniculata
Rocky Mountain Iris	Iris missouriensis
Baltic Rush	Juncus balticus
Sword Leaf Sedge	Lepidosperma gladiatum
Mimulus	Mimulus cardinalis

Additional Resources to Explore:

- Idaho Native Plant Society:
 - <https://idahonativeplants.org/>

- United States Department of Agriculture, Plant Resources:
 - <http://plants.usda.gov/java/>

- Missouri Botanical Garden: Plant Finder
 - <http://www.missouribotanicalgarden.org/PlantFinder/PlantFinderSearch.aspx>

- Consortium of the Pacific Northwest Herbaria:
 - <http://www.pnwherbaria.org/index.php>